

Remember there are several question words in English, many of them start with WH. These are some of the WH question words:

which	asking about choice and options	Which color do you prefer, green or blue?

We also use many questions with HOW. For example:

how long	Asking about length (time or space)	How long is the class?
how many	Asking about quantity (countable)	How many cars are there?
how much	Asking about quantity (uncountable)  Asking about costs and prices	How much milk do you want?  How much is that shirt?
how old	Asking about age	How old are you?
