

Do you remember all the topics you have learned in this course?

- ☐ I can use basic connectors: and, but and or.
- ☐ I know when to use and when not to use the definite article “the”.
- ☐ I can talk about the weather using: “it’s...”.
- ☐ I can use (not) here / there to talk about presence and absence.
- ☐ I can ask questions with “how often...”.
- ☐ I can use common adverbs of frequency.
- ☐ I can use the word “can” to talk about permission, offers, requests and suggestions.
- ☐ I can decline invitations and offers with the word “can’t”.
- ☐ I can make requests with the words “could and would like”
- ☐ I can tell the time in two different ways.
- ☐ I can use time expressions to talk about the past, present and future.
- ☐ I know the difference between “on and at”, prepositions of time.
- ☐ I can ask questions to know the way of doing things with: “how do you...?”

If you don’t remember a topic, that’s okay, no worries. You can always review the classes as many times as you want before taking the exam.