Mariana: Imagine it's someone's birthday, what would you get them? Probably a greeting card including a thoughtful message and you can complement that with a colorful happy birthday balloon!

Talking about special occasions, maybe someone invited you to a baby shower and you don't know if it's a boy or a girl. If you don't know what to get, a pack of baby pacifiers is always a good option!

Are you in love? Maybe it's your anniversary or Valentine's Day and you want to make your special someone feel loved. Maybe you already have a reservation for dinner at a fancy restaurant, or maybe you want to stay indoors, cook dinner yourself and open that nice bottle of wine you bought.

What about buying something for yourself? It's summertime, it's boiling and you've decided to go for a swim. What about a new swimsuit? Or maybe a good sunscreen to protect your skin!

It's Spooky Time! Yes, that's right! It's Halloween and you want to impress your friends with a very original costume so you can either go trick-or-treating or stand out at a party. Who knows, you might even win the costume contest this year!

It's the most wonderful time of the year! You guessed it! It's Christmas time! It's snowy and it's freezing out there, which means it's sweater weather season! And don't we all love wearing that ugly jumper or sweater that patiently waits in your closet all year to be worn? Might be hideous but at least it keeps you warm.

Christmas is undeniably the ultimate season for gift-giving. However, let's not forget that any time of the year is a wonderful opportunity to show our love and appreciation for the special people in our lives through thoughtful gifts. After all, the best gifts come straight from the heart, and there's no wrong time to make someone's day a little brighter!
