

Class #15 - How to make polite requests and offers using “would like to”

Based on the following scenarios, create sentences or questions.

Example (answers may vary):

You want to ask for a room change. I would like to request a room change.

1. You are at a store looking for a red candle and the person asks, “How can I help you?”
2. You want to know your coworker’s availability for a meeting.
3. You want to tell your boss to increase your salary.
4. You want to tell your landlord if you can contract extension.
5. You work at a post office and you want to ask you customer if they want to pay for an express delivery.

Class #15 - How to make polite requests and offers using “would like to”

Answers

1. You are at a store looking for a red candle and the person asks, “How can I help you?”
I would like to buy a red candle.
2. You want to know your coworker’s availability for a meeting.
What time would you like to have the meeting?
3. You want to tell your boss to increase your salary.
I would like to have a salary increase.
4. You want to tell your landlord if you can contract extension.
I would like to get a contract extension.
5. You work at a post office and you want to ask you customer if they want to pay for an express delivery.
Would you like to pay for an express delivery?